Commences 94th Year On Friday

J. W. Hall of Napanee Remarkably Active for His Years—Was a Former Reeve 1938

NAPANEE, Dec. 23—J. W. Hall, one of the best known and highly respected citizens of Napanee quietly observed his 93rd birthday today. He is remarkably active and is enjoying fairly good health for one so advanced in years. With the exception of slightly impaired eyesight, his faculties are all well preserved. Practically every day he is downtown for a short time.

J. W. HALL, NAPANEE

He was born in the Township of Richmond and is a son of the late William Hall, who came to Canada from Ireland, and Mary Diamond, a United Empire Loyalist settler of the Hay Bay district. He is one of a family of four, and is the last surviving member. During his long life he has enjoyed the confidence and regard of a large circle of friends. While residing in Richmond he was a member of the Selby United Church and since coming to Napanee has been a member of Trinity United Church. He was a member of the Richmond Council for some years and, for three years, was reeve. He resides on Centre Street, and with him are his son, Edgerton Hall, and Mrs. Hall. He was married twice, his first wife having died more than forty years ago and his second wife having passed away about three years ago.

ELGIN—The bazaar, with afternoon tea, home cooking, apron and miscellaneous sales tables, held in the Community Hall, under the auspices of the local sub-division of the Elgin C.W.L., exceeded all expectations in its social and financial success, the net proceeds from the afternoon's sale and the progressive euchre which followed in the evening amounting to about $90.

The president, Mrs. E. G. Hamilton, was general convener, with the treasurer, Mrs. M. Rape, looking after cash receipts. The tea tables, which were very attractive with their pretty centrepieces, were presided over by Mrs. Charles Hamilton, Mrs. P. W. O'Meara, Mrs. Jerry Donovan and Mrs. Joseph Jordan, and were splendidly patronized by the many guests, many complimentary comments being given on the excellent service and lunch given.

The home cooking table was presided over by Mrs. George Murphy and Mrs. Edward Dwyre, the candy table by Mrs. J. A. Murphy and Mrs. A. J. O'Brien; the apron table by Mrs. J. D. Hamilton and Miss M. A. Murphy. Mrs. Joseph Dwyre and Mrs. J. A. Kenney were in charge of the table of fancy and miscellaneous articles and the fish pond and rummage table were kept busy under the patronage of Mrs. V. Kenney and Mrs. James Mooney.

On donations made by some of the local merchants and from nearby towns chances were sold. These were in charge of Evelyn Hamilton, Mrs. Thomas Kenney, Mrs. M. W. Kenney, Josephine Donovan, Edith Hamilton, Ella Judge and Mrs. J. A. Kenney. During the evening a large number of tables of progressive euchre were in play, the prizes awarded being: Ladies' first prize, Mrs. T. V. Kenney; gentlemen's first prize, Alphonse Freeman. Consolation prizes went to Frances Fahey and Alex. Hamilton.

The drawing of the articles on which chances were sold resulted as follows: 100 lbs. flour, J. A. Kenney; electric table lamp, Mrs. Charles Freeman; electric bed lamp, Mrs. Alice Dennison; end table, Miss Dorothy Allford; hand-made fancy pillow,

Another Hero of 1812 Gone

(b1797).

Died at the residence of his son, Mr. Irvine Diamond, Isabel Street at the ripe old age of eighty-eight years

He was the son of Mr. John Diamond, one of the first settlers of the Bay of Quinte district, and the last of five brothers who lived to be over eighty years of age. With his brothers he inherited from his father and mother an intense love for British institutions, and, like them, gave proof of this in deeds as well as in words, for in 1812-13 he served his country as a volunteer, and under the command of Sir Isaac Brock, took his share in the privations and victories of that war. In 1837 again he was the Captain of a volunteer militia company, and even as late as 1866—when sixty-five years old—the fires of loyalty which burned so intensely in his soul led him to raise a volunteer company, and being selected as its Captain he, with his men, placed their services at the disposal of the Government.

His neighbors early learned his value, and as soon as our present system of municipal government was given to us, Mr. Diamond was selected as the people's representative, and he was for several years in the County Council of the united Counties of Lennox & Addington. The Government appointed him a Justice of the Peace in 1847, and as in everything else he did to the best of his ability.

Converted to Methodism at 21 years and continued through life

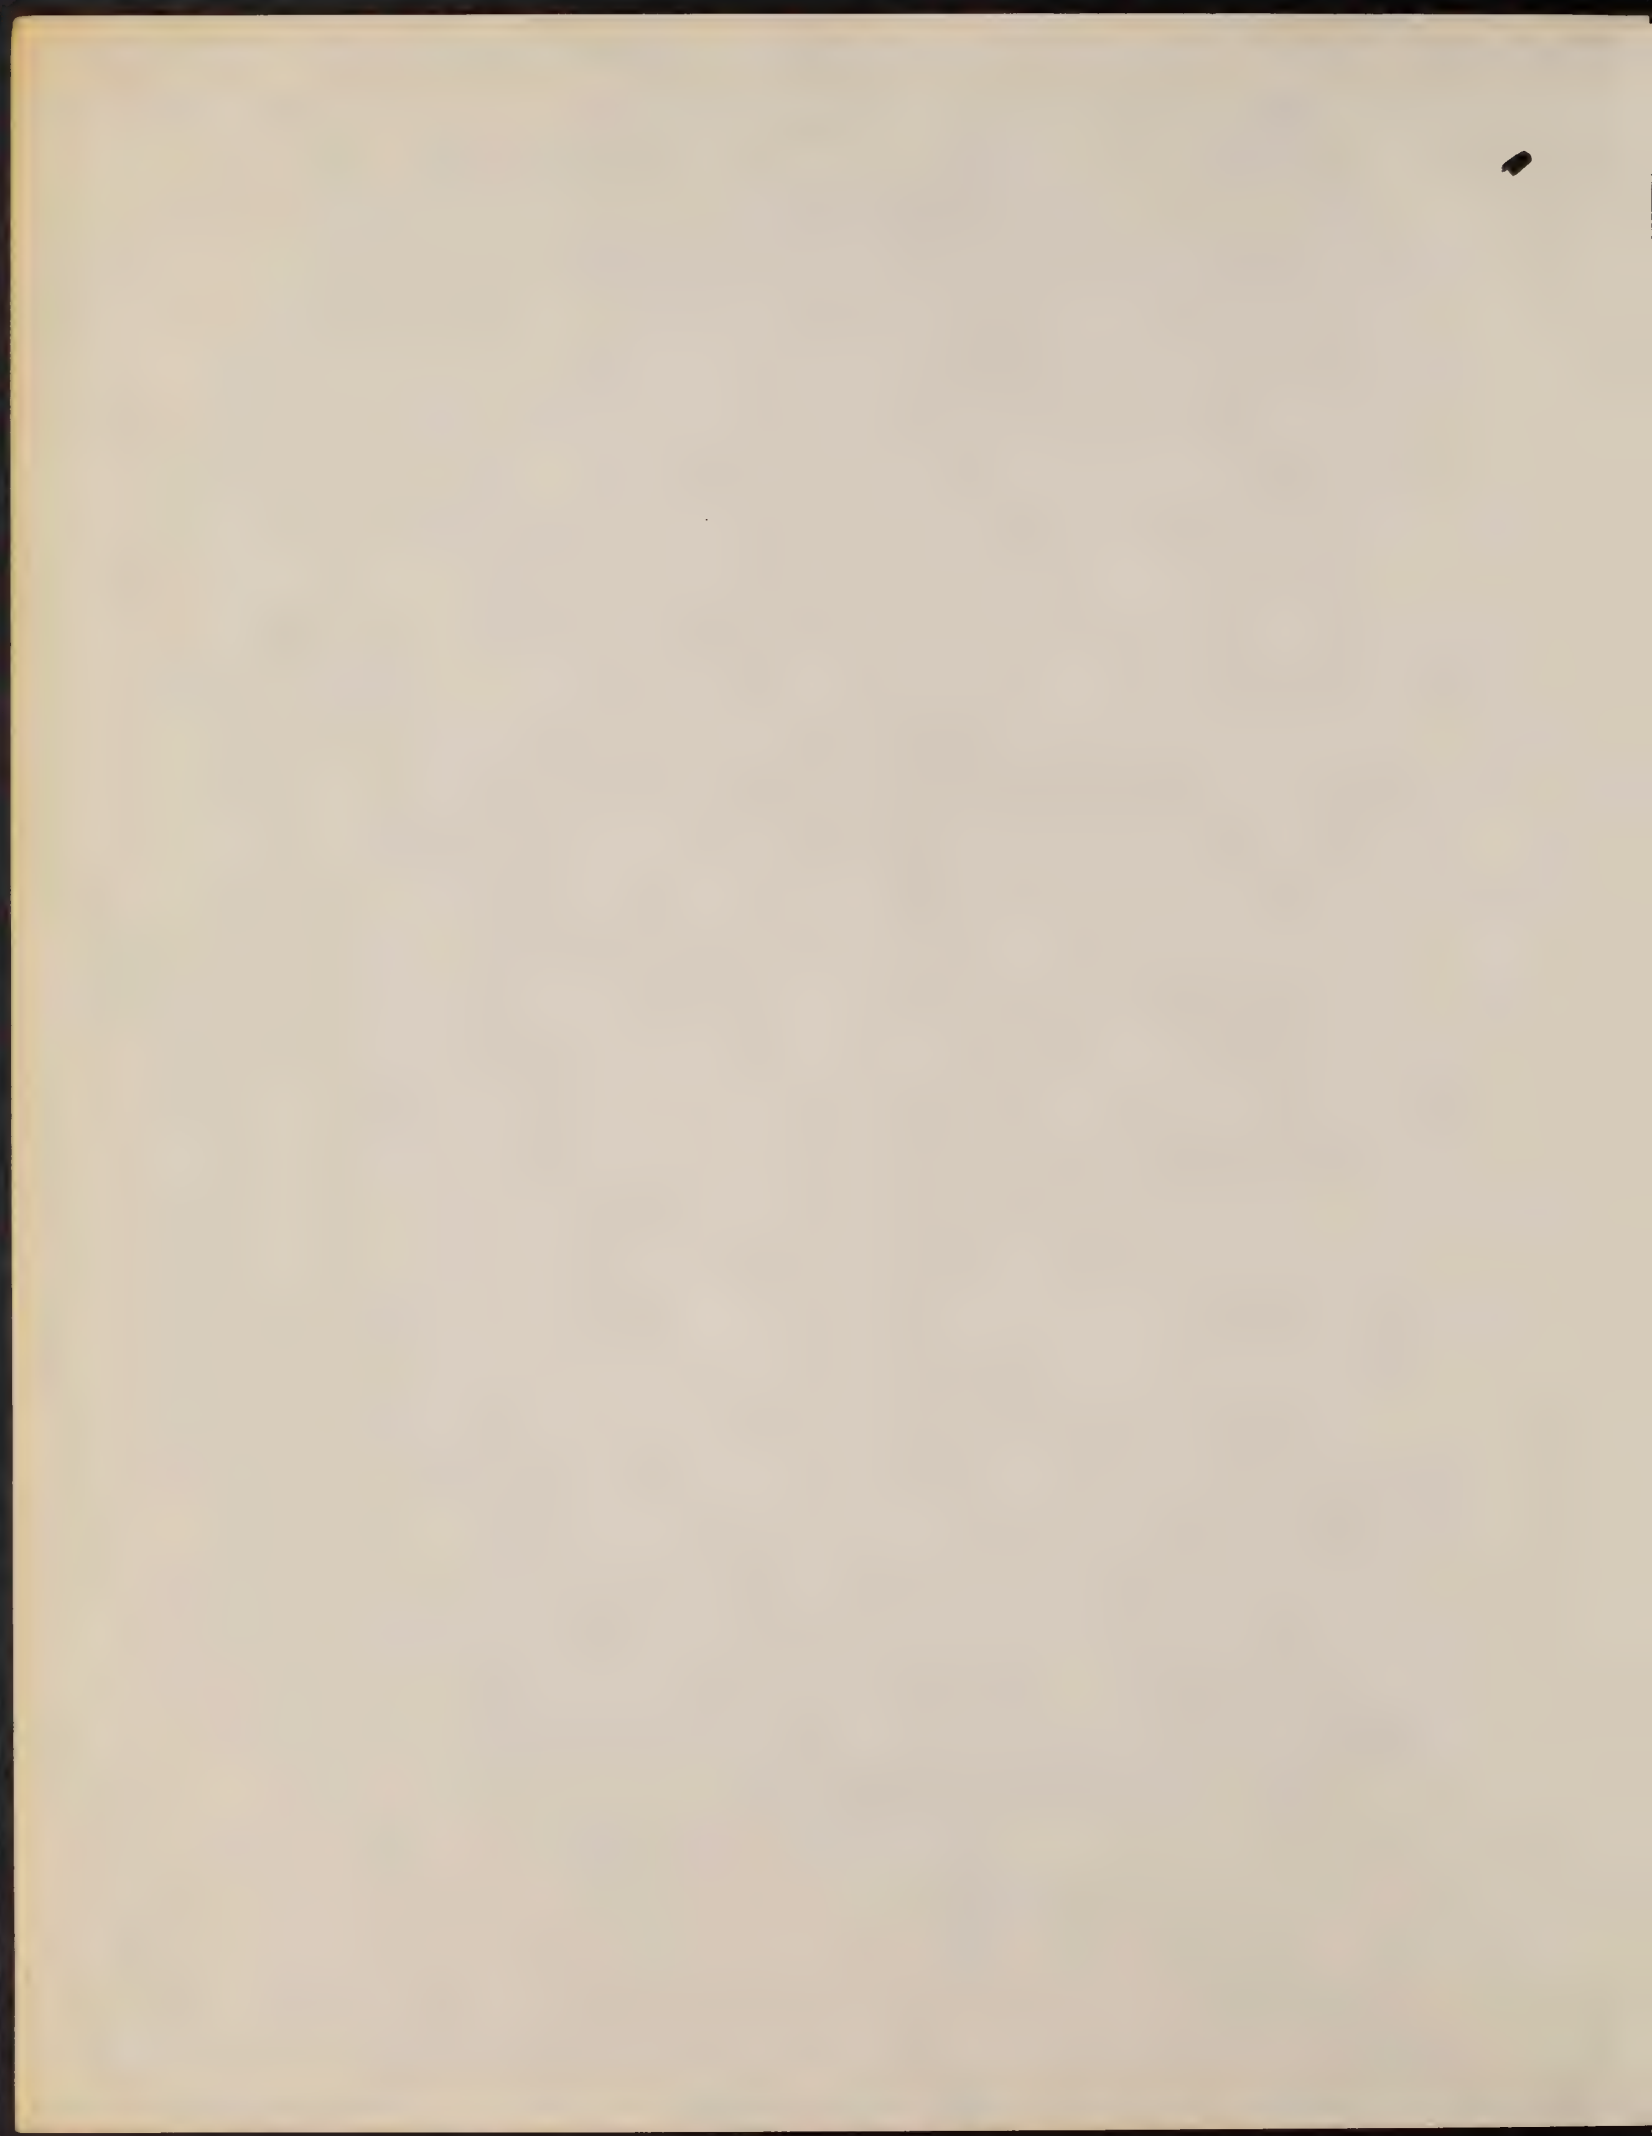

Partially paralyzed for nearly two years, but mind clear

Promoted & brought to completion the Methodist Church in the neighborhood in which he had resided for nearly sixty years

"He did what he could."

Settlement of Upper Canada

John Diamond was born in Albany, with several brothers. An older brother was drafted, but he tried to escape from a service that was distasteful to him; was concealed for some time, and upon a sick bed. The visits of the doctor led to suspicion, and the house was visited by rebels. Although he had been placed in a bed, and the clothes so arranged that, as was thought, his presence would not be detected, his breathing betrayed him. They at once required his father to give a bond for $1,200. that his son should not be removed while sick. He got well, and, some time after, again sought to escape, but was caught, and handcuffed to another. Being removed from one place to another, the two prisoners managed to knock their guard on the head, and ran for life through the woods, united together. One would sometimes run on one side of a sapling, and the other on the opposite side. At night they managed to rub their handcuffs off, and finally escaped to Canada. Of the other brothers, two were carried off by the rebels, and never more heard of. John was taken to the rebel army when old enough to do service; but he also escaped to Canada, and enlisted in Rogers' Battalion, with which he did service until the close of the war, when he settled with the company at Fredericksburgh.

John Diamond married Miss Loyst, a native of Philadelphia, whose ancestors were German. She acted no inferior part, for a woman, during the exciting times of the rebellion. They married in Lower Canada. They spent their first summer in Upper Canada, in clearing a little spot of land, and in the fall got a little grain in the ground. They slept, during the summer, under a tree, but erected a small hut before winter set in.
